

ABA was founded and is directed by Michelle Wright. She is a teacher and choreographer who brings her passion, emotion, and love of life to the fine art of dance. Michelle is a graduate of the High School of the Performing Arts in the heart of New York City. During her duration there she was awarded a two year scholarship to the Joffrey Ballet School. Miss Michelle has also graduated with a BFA from the University of the Arts in 2000 receiving the Aleksei Judenic Ballet Prize. Following graduation Miss Michelle has been teaching for seven years and is the proud owner of ABA. Miss Michelle strives on the fundamentals of technique for beginner through advanced students. She incorporates modern and contemporary techniques to fulfill the needs of today's dancers.
